

How to Enroll in Medicare part B during a special enrollment period

A Step-by-step Guide + Screenshots

Special Enrollment Period (SEP) Eligibility

You will be eligible.

- If you are 65 or older, you or your spouse are still working and are covered under a group health plan.
- You have to remain covered under the group health plan during all months.
- After your coverage or employment ends, you have an eightmonth period starting one month after it ends.

Exception: You will not qualify for a SEP if your group health plan coverage or the employment ends during your initial enrollment period for Medicare Part B.

• If your group health plan coverage is based on retirement or severance pay and the job your coverage is based on has ended in the last eight months.

COBRA and retiree health plans aren't considered eligible coverage. If you have this coverage, you will not qualify for a SEP.

People who receive Social Security disability benefits and are covered under a group health plan from their own or a family member's current employment also have a special enrollment period similar to those for workers age 65 or older.
