YOUR OPTIONS OF MEDICARE PLANNING

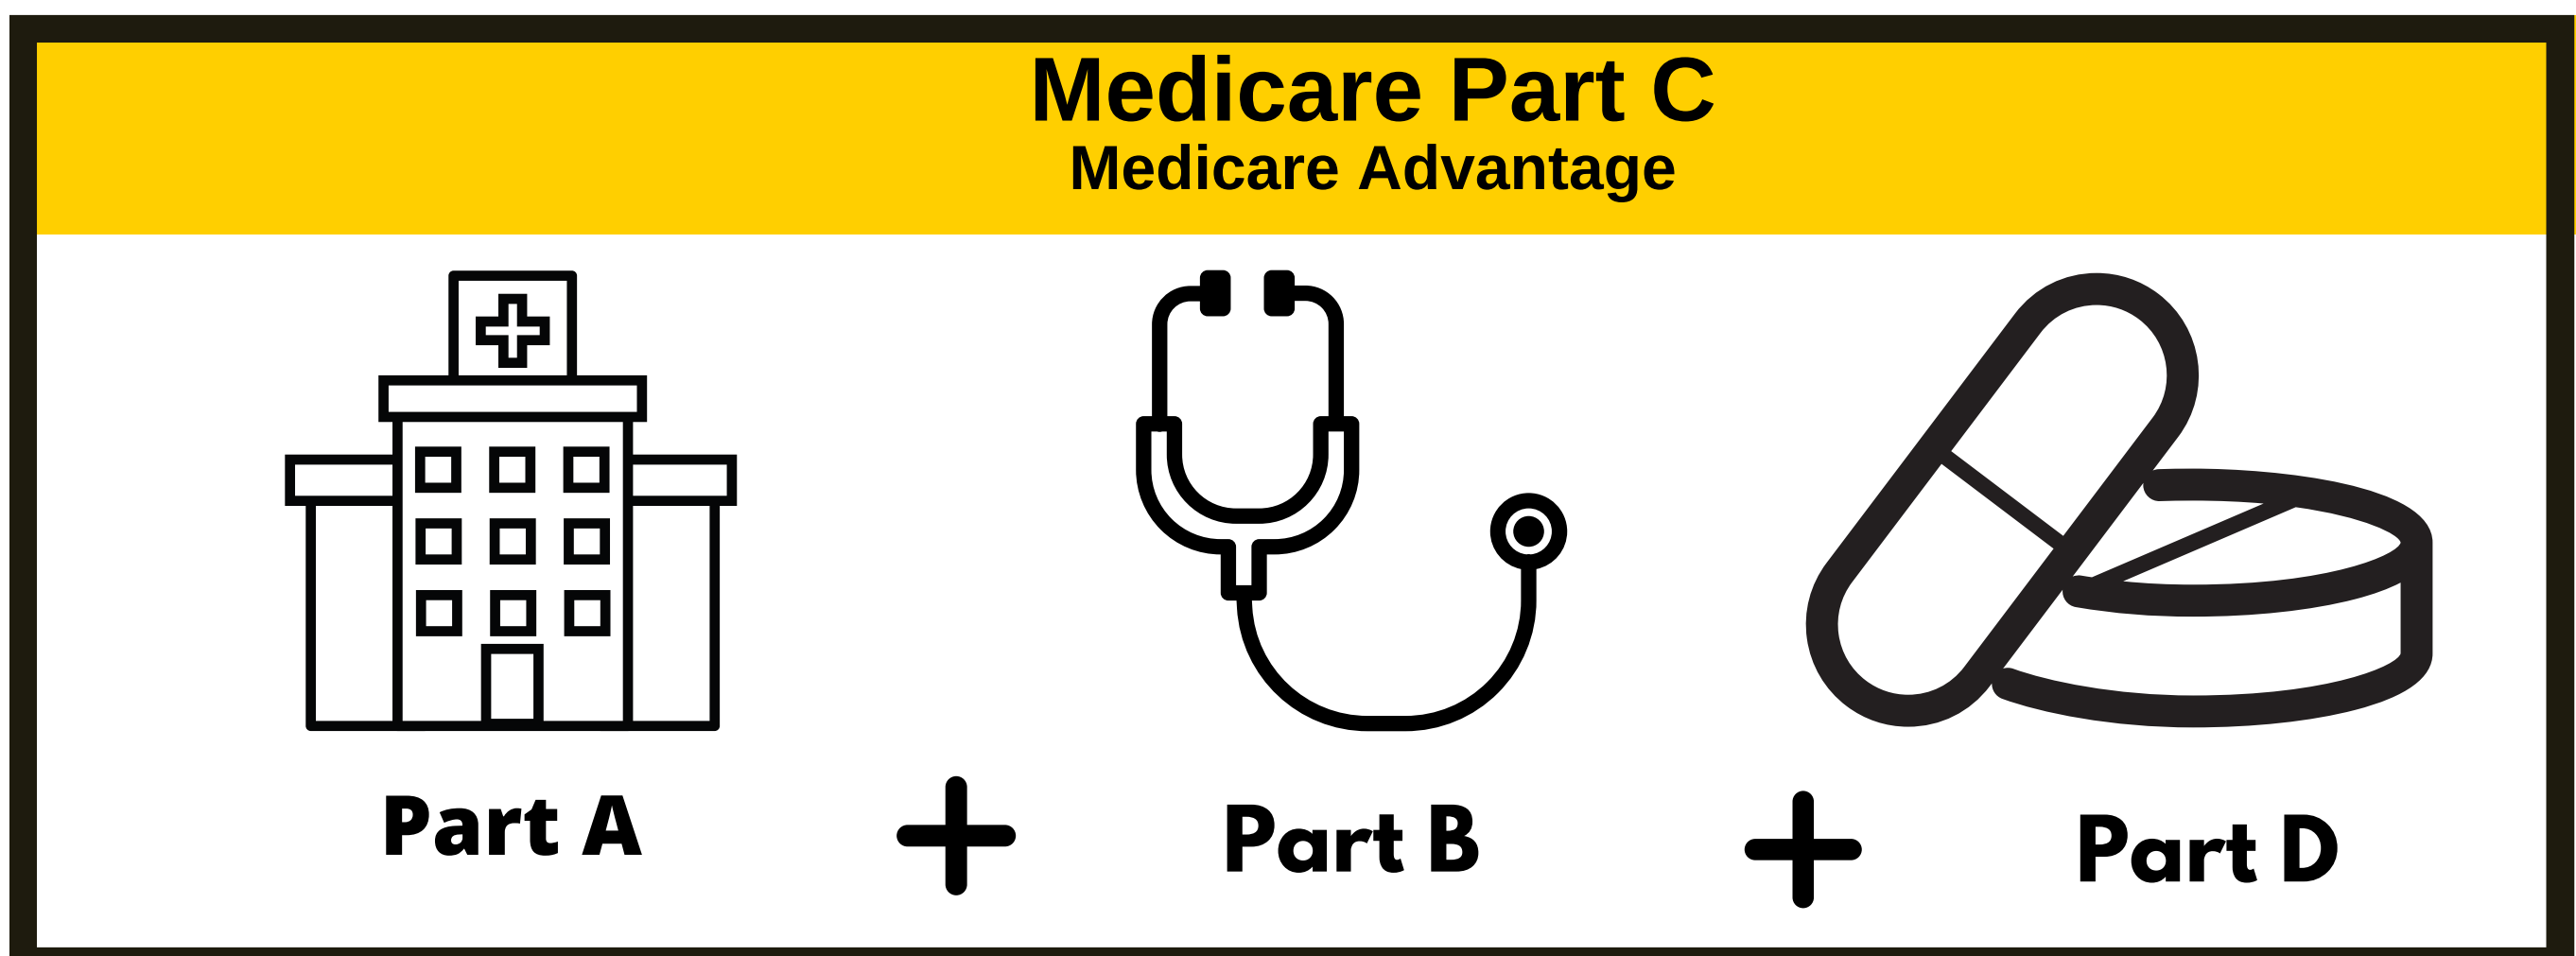

1 Choose original Medicare (if you have creditable coverage for (Part D) and don't need a Medicare supplement policy to lower costs)

2 Choose Original Medicare + Medigap to lower your out-of-pocket costs and/or part D if you don't have creditable coverage for part D

3 Choose a combined package that includes benefits equal to Part A and B. Most plans include part D.

MEDICARE COVERAGE CHOICES

Step 1: What type of coverage do you need?

Original Medicare

Part A Part B

Hospital insurance Medical insurance

Step 2: Do you need Drug Coverage?

Part D Prescription Drug Coverage

Step 3: Do you need to add Supplemental Coverage?

Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap)

Medicare Advantage Plan Part C (HMO or PPO)

Part C

Combines Part A, Part B, and usually Part D

Step 2: If part D is not included;
Do you need to add Drug Coverage?

Part D Prescription Drug Coverage

If you enroll in a Medicare Advantage Plan, you won't be able to use or purchase a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy.

The purpose of providing this example is for illustrative purposes.

If you are not automatically enrolled, when should you register?

You can sign up for Medicare Part A and B during a 7-month period (initial enrollment period) that starts 3 months before you turn 65, includes the month you turn 65, and ends 3 months after you turn 65. If you sign up during the first 3 months of this period, your coverage will start on the first day of your birth month, unless your birthday falls on the first day of the month, in which case your coverage will start on the first day of the previous month. If you sign up during the last 3 months of the initial enrollment period, your coverage will start on the first day of the following month.

The General Enrollment Period: If you missed signing up for Medicare Part A and/or Part B when you were first eligible, you can sign up between January 1 and March 31 of each year. However, your coverage won't start until July 1 of that year, and you may have to pay higher premiums for late enrollment.

The Special Enrollment Period: If you didn't enroll in Part A and/or Part B initially because you were covered under a group health plan based on current employment (either your own, your spouse's, or a family member's due to disability), you can still sign up for Part A and/or Part B:

- Anytime while you're still covered by the group health plan, or
- Within 8 months after the employment or coverage ends, whichever comes first.

Four - Annual Coverage Stages

Stage 1 Deductible	Stage 2 Initial Coverage	Stage 3 Coverage Gap	Stage 4 Catastrophic Coverage
The amount you pay before a plan covers your prescription drugs costs.	The plan pays its share of the cost and you pay your share (copays and coinsurance).	Referred to as the "Donut hole". The plan is limited in how much it can pay for your drugs. You will pay 25% of the retail cost for covered drugs.	After you reach the MOOP, the plan will pay most of your drug costs for the rest of the year.
Deductible Range	Total Maximum of your payments and plan's payments	True Out-of-Pocket (trOOP) Cost for covered drugs	Cost-sharing: Greater of 5% or $4.15 (Generic/Preferred MultiSource Drug) / $10.35 (Other)

MEDICARE PART C

Known as Medicare Advantage Plans (MAPD)

Part C combines Parts A and B and can include Part D

✓ Managed care network - choose your Primary Care Physician (You may need a referral to see a specialist with some plans).

✓ Medicare Advantage Plans may cover some services that Original Medicare does not.

*This is not a complete list of services available

How Medicare Part C works

- Medicare Advantage is a Medicare-approved plan from a private company that offers an alternative to Original Medicare for your health and drug coverage. These “bundled” plans include Part A, Part B, and usually Part D. You can choose a bundle that will cover your needs best
- You may pay a monthly premium for the bundle. Medicare Advantage plan costs may vary in your zip code in addition to Medicare Part B premium. (And the part A premium if you don't have premium-free part A). Medical visits or services could be subject to copayments, coinsurance, or deductibles each year.

There are different types of Medicare Advantage plans.

- HMO (Health Maintenance Organization):
- PPO (Preferred Provider Organization)
- PFFS (Private Fee-for-Service)
- SNP (Special Needs Plan)
- HMO-POS (Health Maintenance Organization Point-of-Service)
- MSA (Medical Savings Account).

Medicare Advantage plans are not standardized; you may prefer a different insurer that better suits your needs. With our Medicare plan finder, you can review Medicare plans and enroll in the one that fits your needs and budget.

MEDICARE SUPPLEMENTS (Medigap)

Medicare Supplements

Includes

-  No referral needed
-  No provider networks
-  All plans part A deductibles, copays, and coinsurance
-  Freedom to choose any Medicare appointed doctor in the U.S
-  Standardized plan letter with associated benefits
-  Has a monthly premium and will vary based on county/zipcode and age

What are Medigap plans and how do they work?

Medigap helps to fill some gaps that Original Medicare doesn't cover. Original Medicare generally covers 80% of your hospital and medical expenses. 20% of the Original Medicare expenses will most likely come out of your pockets. Medigap exists to cover these out-of-pocket costs, such as copayments or deductibles.

Medicare Supplements Do not cover

-  Prescription Drugs; Drug coverage will need to be purchased separately:
 - Medicare Part D
 - Private prescription drug coverage (PDP)
 - Other credible coverage
-  Non Approved Medical Expenses
Medicare Supplement insurance will only pay for the portion of medical expenses approved but not paid for by Medicare.

IMPORTANT! Medigap policies are standardized and go by letters: A, B, C, D, F, G, K, L, M, and N in most states. Each lettered plan's benefits are the same, no matter which insurance company sells it.

Make sure that you are not overpaying for the exact same policy elsewhere.

MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT PLANS

Deciding which Medicare Supplement Plan is right for you

If a percentage appears, the Medigap plan covers that percentage of the benefit, and you are responsible for the rest. For example, if the chart shows 100%, you would be responsible for zero.

- Plans F and G also offer a high-deductible plan...
- Plan N has a copayment of up to $20 for some office visits and up to a $50 copayment for emergency room visits that don't result in inpatient admission ...

Plans G & N are Policy Engineers' most commonly sold plans; they are highlighted below in yellow.

* Plans F and G also offer a high-deductible plan in some states. With this option, you must pay for Medicare-covered costs (coinsurance, copayments, and deductibles) up to the deductible amount of $2,700 ($2,490 in 2022) before your policy pays anything. (Plans C and F won't be available to people who are newly eligible for Medicare on or after January 1, 2020.)

Guaranteed Issue Rights

Guaranteed Issue Rights (Also Called "Medigap Protections") are rights you have in certain situations when insurance companies must offer you certain Medigap policies.

- Out of the coverage area: You are in a Medicare Advantage Plan and your plan stops offering coverage in your area, leaves Medicare completely, or you move out of your coverage area.
- Employer plan ends: You have Original Medicare and Employer group health plan (including retiree or COBRA) or union coverage that pays after Medicare pays and that plan is ending.
- Out of coverage area: You have Original Medicare and a Medicare SELECT policy. You move out of the Medicare SELECT policy's service area.
- Trial Right: You joined a Medicare Advantage Plan or Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) when you were first eligible for Medicare Part A at 65, and within the first year of joining, you decide you want to switch to Original Medicare.
- Trial Right: You dropped a Medigap policy to join a Medicare Advantage Plan (or to switch to a Medicare SELECT policy) for the first time, you've been in the plan less than a year, and you want to switch back.
- Coverage ends no fault to you: Your Medigap insurance company goes bankrupt and you lose your coverage, or your Medigap policy coverage otherwise ends through no fault of your own.
- The company breaks the rules: You leave a Medicare Advantage Plan or drop a Medigap policy because the company hasn't followed the rules, or it misled you.

Medigap must follow federal and state laws designed to protect you, and they must be clearly identified as "Medicare Supplement Insurance." Insurance companies can sell you only a "standardized" plan, identified in most states as plans A – D, F, G, and K – N. All plans offer the same basic benefits. Still, some offer additional benefits to choose which one meets your needs. All policies offer the same basic benefits, but some offer additional benefits, so you can choose which one meets your needs. In Massachusetts, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, Medigap policies are standardized in different ways (source:medicare.gov).

Pick your plan in 3 Steps

1. With our Medicare plan finder tool, you can review the available plans in your zip code. Determine the type of insurance you need by entering your doctors, prescriptions, etc...

- Member satisfaction surveys, plans and providers
- Performance measurements based on more than 50 key factors
- Additional information is available on Medicare.gov

ORIGINAL MEDICARE VS. MEDICARE ADVANTAGE

Original Medicare

- You can go to any doctor or hospital that takes Medicare, anywhere in the U.S.
- For Part B-covered services, you usually pay 20% of the Medicare-approved amount after you meet your deductible (coinsurance)
- There's no yearly limit on what you pay out of pocket.
- You can get Medigap policy to help pay your remaining out-of-pocket costs.
- Original Medicare covers most medically necessary services and supplies in hospitals, doctors' offices, and other health care facilities.
- You don't need a referral to see a specialist in most cases.

Medicare Advantage

- In many cases, you'll need only to use doctors and other providers who are in the plan's network.
- Out-of-pocket costs vary—plans may have different costs for certain services.
- Plans have a yearly limit on what you pay out of pocket for services that Medicare Part A and Part B cover. Once you reach your plan's limit, you'll pay nothing for services Part A and Part B covers for the rest of the year.
- You can't add Medigap to your policy.
- You may need to get a referral to see a specialist.

MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT VS MEDICARE ADVANTAGE

Medicare supplement

- Higher premiums but you could have no co-pay.
- Freedom to choose doctors with out of networks or a referral system.
- Coverage travels with you anywhere in the United States.
- Plan benefits are standardized, no difference between carriers for the same letter plan. Price is usually the only difference.
- Prescription Drug Plans must be purchased separately.
- Use any hospital except closed networks i.e. Kaiser.
- Some routine services are not covered i.e. hearing, vision, dental.

Medicare Advantage

- Affordable plans, but may have co-pays.
- Often have a restricted network of providers.
- You may need referrals for specialists.
- Plans are not standardized and vary per carrier in each county
- Manage care system encourages carriers to work more closely to manage your health care.
- May include Prescription Drug plans (MAPD).

65+ AND STILL, WORKING?

Make sure that you are not overpaying for Health Insurance

Medicare + Health insurance through your employer

May not be cost-effective

- If you work for a smaller company.
- If your work doesn't have a prescription plan.
- If your employer uses COBRA.
- If your employer doesn't contribute to your insurance premiums.

Medicare + Medigap or Medicare advantage

Most likely more cost-effective

- If your work doesn't cover RX.
- If you would like additional benefits.
- If your work's health plan doesn't cover deductibles, co-insurance, or copayments.
- If your employer's plan charges a monthly premium.

It is important to review your employer's health insurance coverage to Medicare with Medigap or Medicare Advantage.

BUYER TIPS

Medicare Supplement Tips

- 1 Don't overpay: Although policies are standardized, they are sold at different prices. Make sure you get the competitive price for the exact same coverage.
- 2 Don't miss guaranteed acceptance periods: the insurance company has to accept you without asking you health questions during this period.
- 3 Maximize all discounts: you can get discounts if you are a non-smoker, married couple, pay annually, or have multiple policy discounts.
- 4 Check for extra benefits.

Medicare Prescription Drug (part D) Tips

- 1 Know your total annual cost: this includes your premium, deductibles, and co-pays instead of just your monthly premium.
- 2 Not all formularies are created equal: drugs have different tiers, and the price will be based on which tier they are on.
- 3 Preferred Pharmacy status: at some pharmacies, your out-of-pocket costs could be less, if they are at a preferred pharmacy.
- 4 Use discounts and coupons when advantageous: you can ask your pharmacists if cheaper alternatives or coupons are available.

Medicare Advantage Plan Tips

- 1 Make sure your doctors and hospital are within the network: out of network will result in higher costs.
- 2 Make sure your prescriptions are covered: check if your prescriptions are on your plan. Check the tier of your drug, which pharmacy, and check if it qualifies as preferred or standard.
- 3 Review plans max out of pocket (MOOP): this can make a difference if you use your plan often or have a major medical service.

NEED EXTRA HELP?

Medicare and Medicaid

Medicaid is a joint federal and state program that:

- It helps with medical costs for some people with limited income and resources.
- Offers benefits not normally covered by Medicare, like nursing home care and personal care services.

If you have Medicare and full Medicaid coverage, most of your health care costs are likely covered.

Part D Extra Help is available:

Additional help paying for your prescriptions may be available.

You may qualify for a Low-Income Subsidy (LIS) if your yearly income and resources are below certain limits.

You may qualify for Extra Help if your assets are not worth more than $30,950 if you are married or $15,510 as a single individual. Your annual income is limited to $27,465 for a married couple living together or $20,385 for an individual.

You can apply at: www.ssa.gov/benefits/medicare/prescriptionhelp

(Do NOT count your home, vehicles, personal possessions, life insurance, burial plots, irrevocable burial contracts, or back payments from Social Security or SSI.) If you have more than those amounts, you may not qualify for the extra help. However, you can still enroll in an approved Medicare prescription drug plan for coverage.

Q&A

Can you have Medicare Advantage plans and Medicaid together?

Yes! Many "dual eligible" Medicare beneficiaries prefer Medicare Advantage plans as a way to get their Medicare coverage.

Will my Medicare coverage follow me if I move out of the state?

If you have a Medigap insurance plan, you will be available to any doctor in the U.S. who accepts Original Medicare. If you have a Medicare Advantage plan, it will only cover you in your original service area for non-emergency needs. You will have 63 days of guaranteed acceptance to enroll in a new plan if you move.

What should couples consider when choosing Medicare plans?

Though there is no one-size-fits-all plan, some Medicare plans will offer a "couples" or "household" discount for enrolling in the same Medicare plan.

How do I change my Medicare coverage?

We help our customers change their coverage by utilizing our "Medicare Plan Finder" where you can quote & apply for Medicare. Or one of our licensed insurance agents can help you enroll in a plan that best fits your needs.
